

Year concerned : DFGSP-3 (3rd year pharmacy)

	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Specific teaching	<input type="checkbox"/> Coordinated teaching	<input type="checkbox"/> Optional
Teaching Unit title	UE microbiology
Subjects Taught	Parasitology
Person in Charge	L Bunetel
Participating Teachers	L. Bunetel, S. Dion
Total Duration	Lectures: 18h	Tutorials: 0 h	Practicals: 12 h
Teaching period	1st semester
Teaching objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Systematic study of human parasitosis</li> <li>- Knowledge of the epidemiological, biological, clinical, therapeutic and prophylactic aspects of parasitosis and mycosis.</li> </ul>
Curriculum content	CM: - Protozoa - Helminthiases Practical work: illustration of the parasites seen in class
Objectives	Recognition and identification of temperate and tropical parasites
Prerequisites	Knowledge of the DFGSP 2 course on general parasitology and ectoparasite vectors.
Recommended books /E-learning	Anofel, parasitosis and mycosis of temperate and tropical regions, Elsevier Masson editions		